The Correspondent

December, 2013: Celebrated war correspondent Peter Greste accepts a last-minute posting in Cairo during the Arab Spring. Days into his assignment he is arrested and accused of terrorism and becomes a pawn in a deadly game of politics and ancient rivalries. Locked in the labyrinth of Egypt's prison system with only his wits keeping him alive, Greste learns true freedom will only come from staring down a brutal regime.

04 June 2025 - 9.45am for morning tea, 10.30am movie start. Cost: $10
