

Golden Hour Matinees

Morning Tea Movie Club

& Sons

Expecting their father to seek forgiveness, the brothers instead hear an extraordinary revelation about Andy that could completely change what they believe about their family and its past. As old resentments, secrets and rivalries resurface, the reunion becomes a tense examination of family, identity, inheritance, forgiveness and the stories parents create about themselves.

07 October- 9.45am for morning tea,
10.30am movie start.

Cost: $10

